Oshadha Perera
University Student

About Me
I am an undergraduate student at SLTC, currently pursuing a degree in Cloud Computing. With a deep passion for technology, digital security, and continuous personal growth, I am committed to making a meaningful impact in the field. My interests include exploring tech innovations, ethical hacking, and cyber defense strategies. I actively seek opportunities to engage in practical sessions, IT workshops, and socially-driven tech initiatives. I am driven by a strong work ethic and always strive to deliver my best in everything I do.
